

World Pharmacist Day 2025 From Analogue to Digital - Evening Event

Thursday 25th September 2025

Overview:

The Pharmacy Team at The Royal Marsden invite you to join us to celebrate World Pharmacist Day. The focus of the meeting will be innovation. And how Pharmacy can embrace and support the technological and digital revolution. Cancer care and treatment are at the forefront of these developments and this meeting will look at how far we have come and how much further there is to go.

This event is open to pharmacy, medical and nursing staff. Anyone with an interest in drug development and how the world of medicine is changing in a digital age.
